The Black Test.

"I do solemnly swear that I accept the civil and political equality of all men, and agree not to attempt to deprive any person or persons, on account of race, color or previous condition, of any political or civil right, privilege, or immunity enjoyed by any other class of men. So help me God."-Southern Radical Carpet Bag Constitutions.

Soldiers and Bondholders—Bonds and Greenbacks. General Melgs has issued Roll of Hono No. 15, containing 18,300 names of deceased soldiers who died in defense of the Republic, and were interred in the national cemeteries at Antietam and several places in

We ellp the above from a Radical sheet. Not one of these 18,300 soldiers, whose lives were offered up in defense of the Union, received anything but Greenbacks for the miserable pittance Government allowed them.

A pension of ninety-six dollars per annum is allowed the family of the private soldier killed in battle or dying in the service. This pittance is also paid in Greenbacks.

The private soldier when first he volunteered to defend the integrity of the Union was promised money for his pay, and he was paid in Greenbacks, which the Radi-

The bondholder, when he found that he could make a higher rate of interest and go untaxed on his wealth by purchasing bonds, did so, paying dollar for dollar in Greenback rags, for his bonds. The law that allowed the issue of these bonds said they were to be paid in Greenbacks—the Greenbacks said the same thing. Yet the bondholder who bought the bonds with rags, the principal of which was to be paid in rags, now demand that the contract be violated and set aside, and he be paid in Gold, worth one hundred and forty-five dollars in Greenbacks for each and every dollar claimed in the bond. For thus violating the contract, in order to put money in the pockets of the bondholder, at the present ruling rate of coin, five hundred and forty-four thousand dollars would be added to every million dollars of debt under which the country now staggers, and to pay the interest on which is so impov-graves at Antietam and other places in Virginia, had no forty-four cents added to each dollar paid them for the lite-blood they poured out. The widows and orphans of that "roll of honor," have no forty-two dollars and twenty-four cents added to the scanty pension allowed, by being paid in gold, and no Radical orators and no Radical press, urges their claims to justice. The 18 300 soldiers are dead-their wives and children have no vote, and cannot aid the Radicals in their efforts to retain office for themselves and their friends.

In the one case, justice demands that the soldiers' pay be made good, by bringing it up to the gold standard, for it was a part of the contract, and its violation was the worst and meanest of repudiation-the repudiation by a Government of a debt due its gallant defenders.

In the case of the bondholders, the stayat-home patriot, who bought gold when the Federal cause met with a reverse, and sold it when the National cause prospered, the case was different. The bonds they bought with greenbacks, were in greenbacks to be paid. Because the Democracy ask these men, whose wealth is untaxed, and increased at the highest rate of interest, by the taxes of the unprivileged class, be paid as they become due, in legal tender notes—the same kind of greenbacks that the bondholder pays his debts with-we are branded as repudiators and odium attempted to be fastened upon us.

But Greenbacks are called rage by Radical orators and in Radical newspapers. If they are rags, what are the bonds which they claim must be paid in gold? If the one is rags, the other is the same. Both are printed on paper-both are promises of the Government to pay a certain amount. Both bonds and Greenbacks are rags, as the Radicals call the latter, but as paper rags the Greenbacks have this advantage-you cannot, under the law enseted by a Radical Congress, pay a debt of one dollar, unless the creditor pleases to receive it, with all the 7-30 bonds the Government has issued. Under the law which thus refuses to make Government bonds a legal tender, you can pay any debt contracted for any purpose in Greenbacks, and if the creditor refuses to receive it, you can snap your fingers at him and bid him deflance. Thus Greenbacks, if rags, are better rags than the Government bonds, and in these best rags the Democracy propose to pay off the bonds and stop the interest on them. The Greenbacks, legal tender notes, draw no interest-the bonds draw a higher rate of interest than any man in Ohio, without a violation of the law, dares to charge his neighbor for money loaned. To retire the bonds, is thus to save the interest at the rate of seven thousand three hundred dollars for every one hundred thousand dollars for which the 7:30 bonds were issued The soldiers have a legal right to demand of the Government that they be paid the full amount necessary to make good the difference between gold and greenbacks of the most part of this tax which is denominated income was paid by men of small an hour. Who Pay the Taxes? Just now Republican politicians of every description are endeavoring to make it appear that the poor man, the laboring man, the mechanic and the farmer, pay no taxes to support the Federal Government; rounding country. It was a workingmen's hat these taxes are paid by rich men, by the Banks, by the Railroads and the Insurance Companies. Of course, if the Federal tixes were paid by these individuals and corporations they would not be able to pay them, did they not first make their profits on that which they pay the income off of their customers, and their customers in turn making it off of their customers: but it is not true that the rich men, the Banks, the Railroads, and the Insurance Companies chiefly pay these taxes. The Hypocrite Unmasked. The Cincinnati Commercial, a sheet that ander the flimsy and false pretense of being neutral, has been built up by Democratic support, has issued a prospectus for a campaign paper to support GRANT, COL-FAX, and the bondholders. This campaign sheet will be made up of matter taken from the Daily Commercial, which still pretends to be a neutral sheet.

We trust the Democratic press will pass the word along the line for Democrats to discontinue their subscription to that political sheet sailing under a false flag.

Personal.

We had the pleasure of taking our good friend Hon. JOHN H. HEATON by the hand yesterday morning. He was on his way home from Iowa, where he spent three weeks. He reported politics as perfectly wild in that State, and the Democrats very hopeful of triumphing. Democrats are receiving great accessions from the Repub-3.201 33 lican ranks.

Maine Election—A Non Est Report The telegraphic dispatches of the additional election returns in Maine are non est. If honest, they would show a decided decrease --- the boasted majority grows small by degrees and beautifully less.

The Rads., instead of crowing over the returns as their "Maine chance," are now calculating their chances in Maine!

A Grand Radical Fizzle. [Correspondence of the Ohio Statesman.]

DELAWARE, OHIO, Sept. 15, 1868. The greatest fizzle of the campaign was the Radicals trying to get up a jollification over the Democratic gain in Maine, on Tuesday night at Delaware The truly 'loil" started the grand meeting by heaping up a few old barrels and boxes to start a bonfire, which attracted a great many children and women; but few men, as lookers on (for really the main objectthe election in Maine, did not reach expectation, by from 5000 to 10,000), but none but the boys participated in the bonies 25

One of the speaker's greatest efforts was on taxation. He said the only tax a Copperhead Democrat paid was on poor whisky, dog-leg tobacco and cardsthese three commodities the Democratic party could not live without. I have heard it said that this same great orator never leaves town without a bottle of the same kind of whisky in his pocket. Still he is what we read of as truly loil. This has been a glorious day for the Democracy in this vicinity. At an early hour this morning the people began to come in from the country, and by 10 A. M. a very large and enthusiastic crowd went to work and raised one of the most beautiful hickory poles we have seen raised this season.

Hemmersbach's band, from Columbus. was present, and added much to the pleasure of the occasion by the very fine music they made.

After the pole was up, the crowd present was very handsomely addressed by Mr Chapman, the Democratic candidate for Prosecuting Attorney for Medina county. About 1 o'clock P. Grand Democratic Demonstration at Steubenville.

The Democracy of Steubenville are alive, and no mistake. On Wednesday night they had a street parade, which thus spoken of by the Gazette:

"The procession and demonstration last (Wednesday) night was the grandest affair that has come off in Steubenville for ten years, as acknowledged by gentlemen of all parties.

The Seymour and Biair Legion, with their new and beautiful uniforms, flags and torches, made a spiendid appearance. The boat Constitution on wheels, from which the fire works were discharged, was which the fire works were discharged, was drawn by six horses. A lot of fellows who ought to be gentlemen, and probably would if it was in their nature, made tools of themselves at the instigation of men professing decency, by trying to insult the procession as it passed the different street corners; but their efforts were futile, as no Democrat paid any attention to them. So far as their efforts to insult were concerned, it was "love's labor lost." White Boys in Blue.

Three car loads of soldiers passed west through our city, on Monday evening last, on the mail train. They numbered just two hundred and fifty four, and not a Grant man among them. Several of our Radical friends approached them with the expectation of hearing the copperheads receive a good cursing, but they were shocked to hear these brave boys express themselves in a style which would induce the "loil" editor of the Register to brand them as so in a style which would induce the "loll" editor of the Register to brand them as so many Benedict Arnolds.

As the cars moved off cheer upon cheer was given by the white boys in blue, for Sey-mour and Blair, the tax-payers candidates. Our soldiers appear to have a rather poor opinion of Grant and Coltax—the pets of the bondholders.—Altoona (Pa.) Democrat.

How is This?

The Phtladalphia Daily News, which has been a Johnson paper and against Grant, has come out strongly against the Democrats, and predicts that Seymour will be soundly whipped.—Cleveland Leader, Sept. 17th.

This same Philadelphia Daily News, of the 16th, in speaking of the Maine election,

"If the Democrats and Conservatives shall gain in other States as they have done in Maine, the defeat of the great 'military availability' will be certain."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Has the Summer Enfeebled You Nine out of every ien to whom this question is addressed, if they answer it candidly, will answer it in the affirmative. Some may reply to it from a sick bed; others, of a stronger constitution and greater powers of endurance, may only experience a slight lassitude as the consequence of the torrid ceason. But some portion of the vitality of all human beings cozes out of them under the pressure of great and co tinuous heat, and the seener the loss is completely repaired, the less succeptible will the system be to the unhealthy influence of the Fall

The most genial and wholesome tonic that has ever been offered to man as a means of recruiting his exhausted strength, and fortifying him against the attacks of disease—is HOSTETTER'S STOM-ACH BITTERS. Taken at this season it is a perfeet safeguard against intermittent fever, billions affections, and all the epidemies which follow close affections, and all the epidemics which follow close upon the expiration of the Summer. It is an invigorant and alterative without any of the drawbacks which attach to mere stimulants and is the only preparation of the kind which a conscientious physician would feel inclined to prescribe for ladies in delicate health. Nothing can be more pure, more harmless, more certain to restore the viger of the system permanently and thoroughly, without exciting the pulse or the brain.
